

I am against media ownership rules changing without preserving competitive media markets that enrich the exchange of information and viewpoints. We need more voices in a America not just 5 or 6 companies controlling all of the voices.

I am also concerned about big business making decisions about the public since in the not so recent past big business has shown little public concern.

Thank you

Ron Gibb